30 October 2016

To whom it may concern,

I learned with pleasure that the first Global Dance Challenge will take place in Vancouver from January 31st to February 4th, 2017. I would like to extend my warmest congratulations, and wish the event success.

The Global Dance Challenge offers an outstanding platform for young dancers from around the world to showcase their talents and enthusiasm. With the efforts of the international dancers and extraordinary instructors, I believe that the first Global Dance Challenge will be conducive to strengthening all participants' friendship as well as the relationship of arts and cultural exchange among the different countries.

Sincerely yours,

Wang Wentian
